

Learning to name letters in first & last name

1. A Name Song for both the first & last name is a simple way to learn the letters if one practices pointing at the letters as the song is sung. See:

2. A Name Puzzle for both first & last name used with a Name Song helps put a letter with the name of the letter. See:

3. To determine if your child knows the letters, and to help your child learn to name the letters, make “Letter Cards” (using simple, large print) of the letters in your child’s first and last name. Pull these out at random for your child to name. (Later add middle name.)

Make the “Letter Cards” with the proper upper or lower case letter using simple, large print (or Comic Sans MS). Example Sophie Madison:
